

STAT

Dear

I have read with great interest the proposal for an ideological campaign which you were kind enough to send me with your letter of April 10.

As you know, this is a question with which I have been concerned for many years and one to which our Government has been giving serious and increasing attention.

I am taking the liberty of turning your paper over to some of our experts in this field. They will be interested in the thoughtful views of someone with your rich international experience in the subject and particularly in your suggestions for the training of specialists in the ideological sphere.

With many thanks and every good wish.

Sincerely yours,

Approved For Release 2004/07/09 : CIA-RDP91-00965R000400040030-0
